Bill West & Jane Sullivan Emcees for the Evening

Hold on to your hats, folks because we've just learned that the emcees for the February 7th Dancing With the Stars are a little, well shall we say, playful?

At a recent DWS get-together, Jane Sullivan and her co-host Bill West cooked up some fun for the evening.

Jane and Bill aren't exactly the shy, retiring types, so you can count on them to add even more zing to an already zing-packed event.

We have no idea what they are doing in this photo—perhaps they've confused DWS with Cirque du Soleil??

Catchin' Up With Some of Our Dancers

Kellee Lotz and Fred Fuller have a stunner of a foxtrot in store for you. They've been practicing like crazy and in the process having LOTZ of fun. (Sorry about the pun Kellee, but who could resist?) Fred's wife Carol has been helping with the choreography. Pure elegance sums it up best.

Fort Collins' resident man about town, Gary Hixon has been practicing his cha cha with partner Amy Hughes. TTT has it on good authority that Gary may rip his shirt off during the dance—just in keeping with the Latin flavor of the dance, of course. Now that alone should be worth the price of admission!

Chris McCullough, of the Jumpin' Jive Cats has a challenge most men would love. He's dancing with two partners and enjoying every minute. He and Gretchen Gaede are dancing a cha cha cha. (They've added the third cha, just because they can!) Fast and sexy is all TTT could get in the way of a description. Sounds good.

Chris and his partner Merry Hummel are dancing the Hustle. Picture a fantasy about an aerobics instructor complete with leg warmers and who knows what else? With Chris, one never knows. This ought to be fun—a flashback to earlier times. TTT is just wondering who is wearing the leg warmers?

Yes, your eyes are seeing correctly, it is Ed Stoner dancing with Stacy Montes. They're still deciding what dance to do. But with this twosome, you can bet that it will be something wild and fun. We've heard that in high school, Ed was good at the hundred-yard dash. Now we'll see how that translates to the dance floor.

Two partners, Ed? What a guy...
